Dear sales representative:

It is with regret that I inform you of some serious problems with your service of repair.

I had my fax machine repaired two days ago. Your technician who came to repair the machine was very rude—he spoke to me disrespectfully, tracked mud all over my carpet, and took twice as long to fix the machine. The most serious is that my fax machine is now broken again.

I have always been happy with the quality of your services, but I am afraid I will have to ask for a repair without the extras and the plans for improving your service. Please contact me at your earliest convenience at 65 68 394058.

Sincerely,
